Memorial Library Is Goal of Local Library Board

URGE ALL CITIZENS ATTEND MEETING NEXT TUESDAY

A Memorial Library dedicated to war heroes of World War I and II and commemorating the departed who have benefited the community is the goal in sight of the Board of Directors of the Hancock County-Bay St. Louis Library.

Plans for a public meeting to be held Tuesday, April 7 will be formulated by the Board at a meeting held tonight at the home of Mrs. John McDonald.

The Board hopes that the people of the county will "attend en masse" the general meeting next Tuesday at the Youth Center at 8 p. m.

The number of fine volumes now owned by the library, plus the housing of the library in its own quarters, will insure Hancock County of one of the most complete libraries to be found in any small community.

Years of struggle and effort have been given by a few interested in this project, and the board is stressing the point of a large attendance at this coming meeting.

REVIVAL NEXT WEEK AT BAPTIST CHURCH

The Rev. Roy Stockstill, pastor of Trinity Baptist Church, New Orleans, will begin preaching at 7:30 Monday evening at the First Baptist Church on Main Street. Assisting Rev. Stockstill will be Mr. and Mrs. Jack Buice of the First Baptist Church, who will direct the music.

Services will be held daily at 7 a. m. and 7:30 p. m., Monday, April 6 through Sunday, April 12.

The Rev. Schuyler Batson, pastor of the First Baptist Church, announces that the Sunday School and Baptist Training Union will endeavor to break all previous attendance records by having 175 at Sunday School and 75 in Training Union on Easter Sunday.

Rev. Batson will preach during both services Sunday—11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

The public is invited to attend all services of the Revival which begins Easter Sunday morning.

RABIES VACCINATION SCHEDULES SET; ALL DOGS MUST BE TREATED

All dogs in Hancock County must be vaccinated against rabies as a part of the County Health Department's fight against rabies. Vaccination stations have been set up, and vaccination will commence Monday. A statement issued by the Health Department, setting forth rules and regulations governing the vaccination and listing vaccination stations follows:

Your district (Hancock and Pearl River counties) Rabies Control officer, F. M. Barker, under the supervision of Dr. C. M. Shipp, County Health Officer, will be at the following vaccination stations for your convenience, on the dates and hours listed below to vaccinate your dog against Rabies.

A fee of $1.50 per dog will be charged. Your dog may have been vaccinated within the past few months; however, this clinic will be held annually as near the same date as possible. Why not have your dog vaccinated again and get on the annual schedule?

Mississippi law requires that every dog in the state shall be vaccinated against rabies annually.

After May 17, 1953, all dogs found running at large in Hancock County and not wearing an official vaccination tag will be impounded for a period of five days, and disposed of at the end of this period if not redeemed and vaccination laws complied with. Rabies can be prevented by vaccination.

No vaccination tags or certificates except those issued by the state board of health through the Rabies Control Officer or veterinarians will be accepted as official.

Joseph Benvenuti Is Candidate For Mayor Of Bay

Joseph Benvenuti last week announced that he will be a candidate for the office of Mayor of the City of Bay St. Louis in the forthcoming city election May 12.

Benvenuti, in a formal statement to the voters of Bay St. Louis, said: "I wish to submit my formal announcement as a candidate for the Democratic Nomination for the Office of Mayor of the City of Bay St. Louis in the Democratic Primary Election to be held on May 12, 1953. In seeking this office of public trust, the following brief history of my life, qualifications and views are given for your consideration."

For three generations, my family have been residents of Bay St. Louis. I am of the third generation, twenty-nine years of age and am married to the former Mary Alice Shoups of Gulfport and have one son, Joseph DeAlton. I attended St. Stanislaus Day School, better known as R. P. University, and upon completing my grades there, attended St. Stanislaus College where I was graduated in June of 1940.

In July of 1940, I volunteered for service in the United States Army and was assigned to the Third Infantry Division on the West Coast. In 1944 I was transferred to overseas duty and served with the Second Infantry Division in Normandy, Belgium, Luxembourg and Germany. I was in active front line duty and remained there until I was removed because of wounds received in battle. After nineteen months of overseas duty, I was returned to the United States and sent to the Nottorington General Hospital in Alabama where I was treated for wounds received in battle, and was honorably discharged at Camp Shelby in July of 1946.

In September of 1946, I enrolled in the University of Mississippi and received my pre-law training in the School of Commerce and Business Administration. In September of 1948, I enrolled as a student in the School of Law of the University of Mississippi and in January of 1951 I was graduated with a Bachelor of Laws Degree.

After receiving my LL.B. Degree, I returned to Bay St. Louis where I began to practice law and am now practicing as a member of the law firm of Jones and Benvenuti.

This is the first time I have aspired for a political office, but I am fully aware of the responsibility and confidence vested in one elected to the high office of Mayor.

It is my belief that the success and progress of any municipality depends upon its internal structure which includes the general attitude of its duly elected officials. The Mayor is entrusted with far-reaching responsibilities and these responsibilities must be taken seriously. With this thought in mind, it should be remembered even though the tasks and duties of the Mayor may be very difficult at times, alone and cannot be transferred to anyone else. Generally speaking, the duties of the Mayor go along with the title to the office which he holds, but specifically, it is not only necessary to satisfy this important obligation, but it is essential that much additional effort be devoted towards the progressive enhancement of our City which has great possibilities. Progress and advancement can be only obtained through co-operation of the public officials elected, for the purpose of serving the people to the best of their ability, for the good of the community and absolutely free of any selfish interest whatsoever.

I hesitate and refrain from listing a long line of major programs and policies to be carried out if elected. It is my firm conviction that anyone elected by the people to represent them, in any office, is in honor bound to serve the people conscientiously for their benefit. This includes doing everything possible with what is available to improve our City and there are many improvements that can be made which have been overlooked, such as the improvement of the streets and the beautification of the city.

I am a firm believer in the principle of equal rights for all of the residents, treating everyone fairly and impartially. It is my belief that the above outlined convictions clearly indicate my views and principles and it is upon these principles that I seek your vote and influence in offering myself as a candidate for the Democratic Nomination for the Office of Mayor.

Respectfully submitted,
JOSEPH BENVENUTI

Junior Baseball Now Under Way; Game Here Sunday

The baseball program inaugurated by the City of Bay St. Louis last year and extended to this year is now in full swing. About 70 boys between the ages of 9 and 14 turned out for the first workouts.

The team, known last year as the Bay St. Louis team, was reorganized and new baseball uniforms purchased. The uniforms will be delivered in time for the first out-of-town game.

As Morreale's Park is no longer available, a new field was necessary this year. A lot on Highway 90 was obtained and the new diamond now being ready will be completed before the end of the week.

The program this year is sponsored jointly by the City of Bay St. Louis and Hancock County.

Due to the retirement at the end of last year of Father Hugh Taylor, who introduced the program, this year's managers are Jerry Kiefer and D. J. Luc. Father Taylor remains as General Manager, with Gerald Gex as Executive Assistant.

The Bay St. Louis team lost the season opener last Sunday in a game with the St. Michaels' CYO of Biloxi.

The younger group, consisting of about 40 boys, is under the management of Bert Stiefel.

In addition to financial help, support in the form of attendance at the games is urgently needed, especially at home games. It is hoped there will be a game at least every Sunday.

Easter Sunday, the younger group will play a game inaugurating their season. Everyone is invited. Parents especially are urged to come out and see these little fellows play. Those in charge assure everyone of an interesting afternoon, and feel that spectators will be amply repaid for attending.

There is no admission charge for the games, though a collection will be taken if there is sufficient support evidenced by the attendance.

Soft drinks and other commodities will be for sale every Sunday at regular barter prices.

Those in charge of the program assure the parents that they need have no fear for the safety of their boys as they are under constant supervision when they are practicing as well as playing. They believe that such a program as this will mean much to the boys of Bay St. Louis and urge everyone interested to come out and try out for any position. This is not a church school program, but a civic program and as such deserves the support of all good citizens.

BEN HILLE JR SOLOS AT SUZNO FLYING SCHOOL

Ben Hille Jr. became the second student pilot to solo at Suzno Flying School when he made his solo flight Sunday, March 29.

The flying service is operated at the local flying field, started Oct. 4, 1952, by Jack Seuzanneau.

Hille's instructor was Henry Chevis, veteran instructor who has been teaching flying since 1926. No student of Chevis has ever had an accident.

The instructor also is a CAA examiner and was an inspector for several years.

Seuzanneau said he has 12 students now taking flying instruction, three of whom will solo in the near future. Instruction is available at the airport every Saturday and Sunday.

I am writing today on my own and it should be to the high office. I will always consider myself a servant of the people, and I will respect the lawful rights of all of the residents, treating everyone fairly and impartially. It is my belief that the above outlined convictions clearly indicate my views and principles and it is upon these principles that I seek your vote and influence in offering myself as a candidate for the Democratic Nomination for the Office of Mayor.

JOSEPH BENVENUTI

Home Demonstration Clubs In County Aid Health, Cut Drudgery, Says Agent

Homemakers of Hancock County are making wiser use than ever before of their families' resources according to Miss Sarah Weaver, local Home Demonstration Agent of the Agricultural Extension Service.

"Most familiar sign of this progress is that most farm homes and the surroundings look so much better than they did not many years ago," she said. "Along with this we find better health due to improved nutrition and other practices, elimination of much drudgery by the use of labor saving devices, and in general a joyment of rural living by the use of labor saving devices, and in general a greater enjoyment or rural living by all members of the family."

Much of this has been accomplished by the women belonging to Home Demonstration Clubs, which hold regular meetings. Mississippi has 23,980 members in 1,143 Home Demonstration Clubs.

Hancock County has six such clubs with a total of two hundred members. Home Demonstration Club members are checking up on their progress and planning for the future this year as part of the active observance of the 50th Anniversary of the founding of the Agricultural Extension Service. This is also the 25th Anniversary of the founding of Mississippi State College, of which the Extension Service is a part.

The local Home Demonstration Agent reviewed some highlights of home demonstration progress in the county: This year Mrs. J. F. Carter of Logtown was one of the ten highest scorers in the Kitchen Improvement Contest. The winners will be announced within the near future.

A community Landscaping meeting was held at Lestown and the Home Demonstration women of this county have donated shrubbery toward the landscaping of the school.

Progress is being made toward the achieving of one of the goals this year. That of building a demonstration kitchen. The Home Demonstration women are so confident that they will get this kitchen that they already have contributed dishes, silverware, glasses, trays, and have earned money to buy a coffee urn.

The Home Demonstration women of Clermont Harbor are sponsoring their 4-H Club, and at the 4-H Rally held March 24, every girl was in full uniform.

LOPEZ EDGES HOLLEMAN IN D. A. RACE TUES.

Arnaud O. Lopez, 43-year-old Biloxi Attorney, edged out Boyce Holleman by a narrow margin Tuesday to win the nomination for the unexpired term of District Attorney for the Second Circuit District.

Unofficial returns gave Lopez a 171 vote over Holleman, 29-year-old Wiggins attorney. Total vote was Lopez, 5,614; Holleman, 5,443. Thomas Wallace third candidate in the race, "also ran" polling 1,688 votes.

Hancock County's 23 precincts unofficially reported Lopez 1,103; Holleman, 329; Wallace, 66.

The special election was held to fill the unexpired term of Luther W. Maples, Gulfport attorney, who recently was appointed by Gov. Hugh White to the Harrison County County Judgeship. Holleman had been serving as district attorney since his resignation from the House of Representatives to accept the appointment from Gov. Hugh White. The Second District embraces Hancock, Harrison, Jackson, Stone and George counties.

Birthday Party

When a young lady turns twelve years, something just a little different in the way of a birthday party is in her mind. The little girl is suddenly emerging into the almost mystical realm of being teen-age.

So, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Kergoien departed from the usual house party last Thursday, and invited many of her friends to celebrate at a gay beach party.

The boys and girls were chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. Kergoien and their elder daughter, Miss Karen Kergoien, and Louis Lucas, a student of Stanislaus.

A table set up on the sand beach at the head of Carroll Ave held the lovely white and pink trimmed birthday cake. Marshmallows were roasted over a campfire, wieners were roasted, and soft drinks completed a perfect repast for such an outing.

The party, which started early in the afternoon, was enjoyed until dusk.

RABIES VACCINATION SCHEDULES SET; ALL DOGS MUST BE TREATED
All dogs in Hancock County must be vaccinated against rabies as a part of the County Health Department's fight against rabies.

Vaccination stations have been set up, and vaccination will commence Monday. A statement issued by the Health Department, setting forth rules and regulations governing the vaccination and listing vaccination stations follows:

Your district (Hancock and Pearl River counties) Rabies Control officer, F. M. Barker, under the supervision of Dr. C. M. Shipps, County Health Officer, will be at the following vaccination stations for your convenience, on the dates and hours listed below to vaccinate your dog against Rabies.

A fee of $1.50 per dog will be charged. Your dog may have been vaccinated within the past few months; however, these clinics will be held annually as near the same date as possible. Why not have your dog vaccinated again and get on the annual schedule?

Mississippi law requires that every dog in the state shall be vaccinated against rabies annually.

After May 12, 1953, all dogs found running at large in Hancock County and not wearing an official vaccination tag will be impounded for a period of five days and disposed of at the end of that period if not returned and vaccination laws complied with.

Rabies can be prevented by vaccination. No vaccination tag or certificate except those issued by the state board of health through the Rabies Control Officer or veterinarians will be accepted as official.

Announcement Birth
Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Jones Jr. announce the birth of a daughter at the Bay St. Louis Hospital, April 2, 1953.

Joseph Benvenuti Is Candidate For Mayor Of Bay

Joseph Benvenuti last week announced that he will be a candidate for the office of Mayor of the City of Bay St. Louis in the forthcoming city election May 12.

Benvenuti, in a formal statement to the voters of Bay St. Louis said: "I wish to submit my formal announcement as a candidate for the Democratic Nomination for the Office of Mayor of the City of Bay St. Louis in the Democratic Primary Election to be held on May 12, 1953. In seeking this office of public trust, the following brief history of my life, qualifications and views are given for your consideration:

For three generations, my family have been residents of Bay St. Louis. I am of the third generation, twenty-nine years of age and am married to the former Mary Alice Shoups of Gulfport, and have one son, Joseph, DuAlton, I attended St. Stanislaus Day School better known as R. P. University, and upon completing my grades there, attended St. Stanislaus College where I was graduated in June of 1940.

In July of 1940, I volunteered for service in the United States Army and was assigned to the Third Infantry Division on the West Coast. In 1944 I was transferred to overseas duty and served with the Second Infantry Division in Normandy, Belgium, Luxembourg and Germany.

I was in active front line duty and remained there until I was removed because of wounds received in battle. After nineteen months of overseas duty, I was returned to the United States and sent to the Northington General Hospital in Alabama where I was treated for wounds received in battle, and was honorably discharged at Camp Shelby in July of 1946.

In September of 1946, I enrolled in the University of Mississippi and received my pre-law training in the School of Commerce and Business Administration. In September of 1948, I enrolled as a student in the School of Law of the University of Mississippi and in January of 1951 I was graduated with a Bachelor of Laws Degree.

After receiving my LL.B. Degree, I returned to Bay St. Louis, where I began to practice law and am now practicing as a member of the law firm of Jones and Benvenuti.

This is the first time I have aspired for a political office, but I am fully aware of the responsibility and confidence vested in one elected to the high office of Mayor.

It is my belief that the success and progress of any municipality depends upon its internal structure which includes the general attitude of its duly elected officials. The Mayor is the elected official. The Mayor is the trusted with far-reaching responsibilities and these responsibilities must be taken seriously.

With this thought in mind, it should be remembered even though the tasks and duties of the Mayor may be very difficult at times, such duties are his responsibility and his alone and cannot be transferred to anyone else. Generally speaking, the duties of the Mayor go along with the title to the office which he holds, but specifically, it is not only necessary to set this important obligation, but it is essential that much additional effort be devoted towards the progressive advancement of our City.

Progressive advancement can be only achieved through co-operation of the public officials, elected for the purpose of serving the people to the best of their ability, for the good of the community and absolutely free of any selfish interest whatsoever.

I hesitate and refrain from listing a long line of major programs and policies to be carried out if elected. It is my firm conviction that anyone elected to the office of Mayor should be able to represent the people conscientiously for their benefit. This includes doing whatever possible within the City and doing whatever necessary which can be, and is, made to make which have been over-looked, neglected, the maintenance of the public and the reputation of the City of Bay St. Louis.

I am proud to be a citizen of this City and I am proud to be a member of the community. I am proud to be a member of the community and I am proud to be a member of the community.

I am proud to be a member of the community and I am proud to be a member of the community. I am proud to be a member of the community and I am proud to be a member of the community.

I am proud to be a member of the community and I am proud to be a member of the community. I am proud to be a member of the community and I am proud to be a member of the community.

I am proud to be a member of the community and I am proud to be a member of the community. I am proud to be a member of the community and I am proud to be a member of the community.

I am proud to be a member of the community and I am proud to be a member of the community. I am proud to be a member of the community and I am proud to be a member of the community.

I am proud to be a member of the community and I am proud to be a member of the community. I am proud to be a member of the community and I am proud to be a member of the community.

I am proud to be a member of the community and I am proud to be a member of the community. I am proud to be a member of the community and I am proud to be a member of the community.

I am proud to be a member of the community and I am proud to be a member of the community. I am proud to be a member of the community and I am proud to be a member of the community.

I am proud to be a member of the community and I am proud to be a member of the community. I am proud to be a member of the community and I am proud to be a member of the community.

Junior Baseball Now Under Way; Game Here Sunday

The baseball program inaugurated by the City of Bay St. Louis last year and extended to this year is now in full swing. About 70 boys between the ages of 9 and 14 turned out for the first workouts.

The team, known last year as the Bay Jr., was reorganized and new baseball uniforms purchased. The uniforms will be delivered in time for the first out-of-town game.

As Morreale's Park is no longer available, a new field was necessary this year. A lot on Highway 90 was obtained and the new diamond now being readied will be completed before the end of the week.

The program this year is sponsored jointly by the City of Bay St. Louis and Hancock County.

Due to the retirement at the end of last year of Father Hugh Taylor, who introduced the program, this year's managers are Jerry Kiefer and D. J. Luc. Father Taylor remains as General Manager, with Gerald Gex as Executive Assistant.

The Bay Jr. lost the season opener last Sunday in a game with the St. Michael's CYO of Biloxi.

The younger group, consisting of about 40 boys, is under the management of Bert Steffel.

In addition to financial help, support in the form of attendance at the games is urgently needed, especially at home games. It is hoped there will be a game at least every Sunday.

Easter Sunday, the younger group will play a game inaugurating their season. Everyone is invited. Parents especially are urged to come out and see these little fellows play. Those in charge assure everyone of an interesting afternoon, and feel that spectators will be amply repaid for attending.

There is no admission charge for the games, though a collection will be taken if there is sufficient support evidenced by the attendance.

Soft drinks and other commodities will be for sale every Sunday at regular ball park prices.

Those in charge of the program assure the parents that they need have no fear for the safety of their boys as they are under constant supervision when they are practicing as well as playing. They believe that such a program as this will mean much to the boys of Bay St. Louis and urge everyone interested to come out and try out for any position. This is not a church school program, but a civic program and as such deserves the support of all good citizens.

BEN HILLE JR SOLOS AT SUZNO FLYING SCHOOL
Ben Hille Jr. became the second student pilot to solo at Suzno Flying School, when he made his solo flight Sunday, March 29.

The flying service is operated at the local flying field, started Oct. 4, 1952, by Jack Seuzeneau.

Hille's instructor was Henry Chevia, veteran instructor who has been teaching flying since 1926. No student of Chevia has ever had an accident.

The instructor also is a CAA examiner and was an inspector for several years.

Seuzeneau said he has 12 students now taking flying instruction, three of whom will solo in the near future. Instruction is available at the airport every Saturday and Sunday.

City is running solely on my own and I am not in the high office. I will always consider myself a servant of the people, and I will respect the laws of the state and the laws of the City of Bay St. Louis.

It is my belief that the above outlined convictions clearly indicate my views and principles, and I am sure that the people of Bay St. Louis will support me in my candidacy for the Democratic Nomination of the Office of Mayor.

Respectfully submitted,
JOSEPH E. BENVENUTI

Home Demonstration Clubs In County Aid Health, Cut Drudgery, Says Agent

Homemakers of Hancock County are making wiser use than ever before of their families' resources according to Miss Sarah Weaver, local Home Demonstration Agent, of the Agricultural Extension Service.

"Most familiar sign of this progress is that most farm homes and the outbuildings look so much better than they did just a few years ago," she said. "Along with this we find better health due to improved nutrition and other practices, elimination of much drudgery by the use of labor saving devices, and in general a greater enjoyment of rural living by the use of labor saving devices, and in general a greater enjoyment of rural living by all members of the family."

Much of this has been accomplished by the women belonging to Home Demonstration Clubs, which hold regular meetings. Mississippi has 21,981 members in 3,145 Home Demonstration Clubs.

Hancock County has six such clubs with a total of two hundred members. Home Demonstration Club members are checking up on their progress and planning for the future this year as part of the active observance of the 50th Anniversary of the founding of farm demonstration work-out of which grew the Agricultural Extension Service. This is also the 45th Anniversary of the founding of Mississippi State College, of which the Extension Service is a part.

The local Home Demonstration Agent reviewed some highlights of home demonstration progress in the county:

This year Mrs. J. F. Carter of Logtown was one of the ten highest scorers in the Kitchen Improvement Contest. The winners will be announced within the near future.

A community Landscaping meeting was held at Logtown, and the Home Demonstration women of this county have donated shrubbery toward the landscaping of the school.

Progress is being made toward the achieving of one of the goals this year. That of building a demonstration kitchen. The Home Demonstration women are so confident that they will get this kitchen that they already have contributed dishes, silverware, glasses, trays, and have earned money to buy a coffee urn.

The Home Demonstration women of Clermont Harbor are sponsoring their 4-H Club, and at the 4-H Rally, held March 24, every girl was in full uniform.

LOPEZ EDGES HOLLEMAN IN D. A. RACE TUES.
Arnaud O. Lopez, 43-year-old Biloxi Attorney, edged out Boyce Holleman by a narrow margin Tuesday to win the nomination for the unexpired term of District Attorney for the Second Circuit District.

Unofficial returns gave Lopez a 171 vote over Holleman, 29-year-old Wiggins attorney. Total vote was Lopez, 5,614, Holleman, 5,443. Thomas Wallace, third candidate in the race, "also ran" polling 1,688 votes.

The Second District embraces Hancock, Harrison, Jackson, Stone and George counties.
